The husky x has a injury on her paw.
Injury on the right leg front paw.

General Report Comments: I saw the 1x husky x female with the injured paw,the dog could not even put weight on its paw and I could see that she is in pain. I contacted the person who is supposed to be looking after the dig and he gave me the owners contact details. I called Mr Shibambu and explained to him that his dog needs to be taken to the vet because she has a injury on her front paw. Mr Shibambu decided to surrender the dog to the Spca and sent me a whatsapp message where he gave permission for me to take the husky x female called Brownie. The German Shepherd called Zena was inside the yard and in good condition. No other welfare concerns was observed. Nfa until further notice.
