General Report Comments: There was nobody at the address. I did see 2 dog's the female boerboel x was full of ticks and underweight. She was barking and running around. The other black and tan dog was lying next to the wall in the shade he is also underweight and full of ticks. He did not stand up at all. I could not see if there was any water available for the dog's. There were empty bag's of food lying around and the yard is full of dog feces. I did leave a warning for the owner or caretaker to contact me within 20hours.
