General Report Comments: Christine informed me that the there was a boy who jumped into her property with his Pitbul and the Pitbul attacked her dog. Stacey had injuries on her neck and the right front leg could hardly move. I explained everything to Christine and I issued a 24hour notice to comply. I left the property.

Christine's neighbor offered her transport to take the dog to the vet in Vredenburg . She was informed that the vet on standby was in Langabaan and it was going to cost her around R4000 to treat the dog. She informed me that she doesn't have that kind of money and she can't see her dog suffer like that. She decided to surrender the dog . I was supposed to recheck but the dog has been surrendered.
