General Report Comments: Re-check Tracey the mother said that the dog's belongs to her she is taking care of the dog's. She said she did hurt herself and could not work for a few weeks due to her injury and there was no income. That is the reason why the dog's lost body weight. She said she started working again and is now able to buy proper dog food again. She also said a few months ago she asked Langebaan animal care to take the old dog to be euthanized but they refused and got treatment for the dog and wanted her to pay the vet bill after she told them she does not have money. I will recheck next week again she said she is going to surrender the old female dog to the Spca. There was dog food available for the dog's.
