EMAIL SENT:

Good day Christelle,

I trust this email finds you well.

As advised and explained, any person and/or entity that uses any animal for exhibition or display must be in possession of a valid license in terms of the Performing Animals Protection Act (PAPA) (Act 24 of 1935, amended by Act 4 of 2016).

Herewith is a link to the Western Cape licensing body.

I have also attached the details of the state vet for Malmesbury, under who you would fall.

You can either follow the link and obtain all the relevant information, as well as application forms, or contact the State veterinarian directly.

Kindly ensure this is done without unnecessary delay.

Feel free to contact me if the above does not clarify.

Kind regards,

Insp. Carina Bodenstein
