Comments:	Called Ricky to ask if he is home, for me to do a routine check. Ricky advised that he is in Cape Town, but also that he sold the cow to someone from Hopefield. The cow was collected last week. There is now only the black cow left on the property. I went past the property to verify, only the black one was seen. The cow was in a small camp with ab lib provided roughage. It also appears as if the cow has gained weight in the past few weeks. I will do a final check in 3 weeks to ensure the remaining cow continious to gain weight.
