Comments:	I called the owner to confirm if the dog went for treatment. The owner confirmed that the person that knocked the dog took the dog to Vredenburg Veterinary Clinic , but has not brought the dog back yet. The person advised that the dog received stitched and that it must be cleaned daily and that theybasked if they can care for the dog during his recovery. She agreed to this. As I was still talking, the phone cut out. I tried to call her back but her phone was off. I will go past the property on tuesday again, and speak with her to ask for the peoples details and their address to go and see the dog
