General Report Comments: Upon arrival, no one appeared to be home as there was no response to my presence.

I observed both dogs free roaming inside the property. The chain is still laying next to the kennel, giving me the indication that the owner will easily chain the dog if he feels like it. When both dogs are free roaming, they have access to adequate protection against the weather elements, as there is a large igloo kennel on the property where both will easily fit in together.

I will conduct a few random inspections to ensure both dogs are free roaming at all times.
