General Report Comments: Upon arrival, no one appeared to be home as there was no response to my presence.

I saw the dog was placed on the runner and the runner was working effectively . The swivel have been attached and the chain remains extended. The dog now has much more roaming space.

I went to the neighboring property to see the full extend of the runner and the shelter (wooden kennel), and the shelter is placed in such a way that the it provides adequate protection against the weather elements.

I will close this case now, as the owner complied, and there are currently no APA contraventions.
