General Report Comments: I look for 206 Storm street, but the house number does not exist. I then went back to 72 Wilgers street, where I found the dogs laying in the property. The property owner approached me and advised that Flip is not here. I asked if she knows wheter Flip took the dog for treatment and she said yes. And advised that he asked for the lady that works in the area assisting the people with treatment etc, Dot Skelly, to come around and she came last week friday where she apparently injected the dogs and dipped them.

I tried to call Dot, but she did not answer, I will call Dot later in the week again and enquire regarding this.
