General Report Comments: Peter was not at home but I did see the black collie x roaming in the street. I don't know what his been using but the skin condition seems like it's getting better,a family member came out and told me that Peter has went to do a gardening job. I asked if Peter has been treating the dog and she said yes he got some dip from someone who works o a farm and has been dipping the dog once a week. I asked her if she can show me the dip and she told me she does not know where Peter hides the dip. Water and shelter was observed. Will follow up.
