General Report Comments: I was successful to obtain a warrant from the Magistrate in Moorreesburg. I went to the property and Mr Dick was there and granted me access. Mr Cilliers was still not present since the Tuesday 5th. I gave Mr Dick the warrant and proceeded to remove the Border Collies. The area was very dirty and full of feces and urine. None of the dogs had food and water available to them. I loaded the Border Collies in my vehicle as well as into the vehicle of field officer Chiwawa. I left a seizure notice at the property that I confiscated 23 Border Collies. I brought the Border collies to Darling SPCA and we took 5 to Paarl SPCA and 8 to Cape of Good Hope SPCA. We received permission from NSPCA to board the dogs until further notice as we do not have enough kennel space. The 1 puppy that was taken to CoGH had a limp in his front paw which we made COGH aware of.
