General Report Comments: Upon arrival, the owner did not appear to be home as there was no response to my presence.

A tenant on the property approached me and advised that the owner is not home and he does not know when he will be home. He showed me which door belongs to his house. A young woman approached me from the far back of the property and advised that the dog belongs to her father. She gave me a telephone number for him but the number did not work.

I saw the dog laying in one spot and when called the dog stood up and approached me. The dog's r.hind leg appears to be broken and the dog did not put any pressure on the leg.

I issued a warning:

1. Provide the dog with veterinary treatment within 24hrs
2. The dog can be surrendered.
