General Report Comments: Upon arrival, no one appeared to be home. The dog was kept on his runner, with no concerns. I saw the shelter has not been rectified yet.

I issued a warning:
1. Either fix or replace the shelter

As I was about to leave, the owner approached me from inside the house, he was sleeping. He apologized profusely for not having the kennel sorted and advised that he was called into work unexpectedly.

I gave him the warning, and he promised to have the matter resolved.
