General Report Comments: I did a recheck today and I found that the owner of the dog was not at home and I left the notice to comply for the owner to contact me and this morning he did contacted me and we spoke about why he keeps his dog there and he said he the other side of the property the fence is low and the dog did jump to the neighbors yard, and I also told him that the dog is stressing in that cage they can't keep him there for ever and he said he will speak to his wife just to let him out when the wife is at home and she can supervise the dog. I also told him that the dog is damaging his water bucket and that is another sign of stressing. I will recheck Saturday because he is going to be at home.
