

INSPECTOR NOTE

|              |                     |
|--------------|---------------------|
| Building:    |                     |
| Street:      | 22 AMARYLLIS STREET |
| Suburb:      | ST HELENA BAY       |
| Postal Code: |                     |
| Date:        | 2025-09-12          |
| Time:        | 09:00               |
| Inspector:   | JAMESON OCTOBER     |

---

|                 |                                                                                                                                              |
|-----------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Type:           | CASE DISCUSSION NOTE                                                                                                                         |
| Follow-Up Date: |                                                                                                                                              |
| Comments:       | Margie from Care St. Helena Bay has told inspector Van Zyl that SAPS does not want to open a case of animal abuse. NFA until further notice. |
| Captured By:    | JAMESON OCTOBER 2025-09-12 09:00                                                                                                             |