General Report Comments: The dogs sleep inside the house and have freedom to roam outside freely and I saw the kennels outside. The yard is big enough for the dogs to exercise and when Jabu open the gate for me to enter the dogs did not run at the street which shows they have been trained. I did not hear any barking during my inspection and this is the second time going to the premises. The is no welfare concern. The dogs and cats get along very well and dogs are very friendly.
