General Report Comments: Upon arrival at the address we met with the owner and conducted an inspection on the dog and its living conditions. No violation of the Animals Protection Act was found. During the investigation the owner told us that he doesn't stand there the whole day and he showed us the water bottle as well as the container for water for the dog. He showed us the food which was more than enough. He told us the Lonehill vet was taking care of the dog's medical account.
