General Report Comments: During my visit to the owner squatter house, he was on his way home from begging up the road. He had his dog "Apollo" on a leash and a body harness walking properly. The owner, Mr Aron carries an umbrella and a 5-litre water bottle during his begging at the robots. The only concern about the dog was him getting overweight. I advised him to put the dog on fat-burning diet and exercise him more. He claims he takes the dog to the Fourways Veterinary Hospital and they support him very much if he such a problem he would have taken the dog there. No violation of the Animal Protection Act found.
