General Report Comments: Mr Aron was on his way home when I went to his squatter house. He was walking with his dog on leash and a body harness carrying a backpack, 5-litre water bottle, an umbrella, and a placards displaying begging message. The dog appeared to be walking properly without a limp. The owner, Mr Aron took me into his new Recreational Vehicle (RV) that was parked on his portion of squatting and he had food which was more than enough for the dog. He also had washing and grooming supplies that were donated to him. He said that the allegations about his dog were 'ridiculous and some people being nasty'. He claimed that he if he has any health issues about Apollo he would always take the dog to Fourways Vet
