General Report Comments: The owner/landlord of the property claimed the dog owner/s were his tenants and he left with his belongings except the dog. The landlord said he had been contacting the tenant/s (including the wife) until he got through to the husband who said he can surrender the dog to the SPCA. The dog was found in dirty, feecal-filled place the water bowl was nearly empty and appeared to have algae in it. The landlord signed the dog over to the SPCA and was admitted to the pound.
