General Report Comments: At the property I met with the owner's son named Sakhile. He showed me around the yard there about 20 rabbits and a hen of chicken free roaming in the yard. The main gate appeared to be solidly secured. I asked him for his mother's contact information. I phoned Mrs Mamba who explained that the rabbits ran out of the yard when the gate was open by one of the tenants and the rabbits would never run into the streets when the gate closed. I tried to convince her to sign over the some rabbits to us but she said she's planning to take them to her homestead in EGcuwa, in the Eastern Cape and will only leave 2 rabbits here with her. Their shelter was dirty of chicken poop and I asked them to clean the shelter for the animals in a written warning. To follow up to ensure compliance
