General Report Comments: At the property, we stopped to do a routine inspection. Mr Mlamuli Buthelezi allowed us to inspect the living condition of the security dog. There was dark tan and black faced, adult, female Malinois being used for safeguarding but the security company only produced the supplier's PAPA valid license and did not have any of the company's own. The dog showed signs of being unsettled putting her tail under her legs. There was a bottle of Jeyes Fluid dip placed in the dog's cage. The blanket was dirty and tree leaves were harboring next to the dog's kennel. A warning was issued to the company to relieve the dog off her duties immediately as they were operating illegally .
