General Report Comments: A Veterinary report from Dr Greenberg was received on the 09th October 2022 - See attached. The report stated the following :-

- Gorilla was euthanased by the vet on the 07/10/22
- Million, Rottweiler, teeth discolouration was due to old age and no signs of rotten teeth.
- Shakira, Gsd with the swelling under the left eye. This was due to an abscess of the roots of carnassial, cutting tooth. Antibiotics were dispensed and owner was considering euthanasia. Vet advised dental extraction and scaling.
- Ceaser, the boerboel was euthanased on the 07/10/22.
- Mango, male Gsd, the vet stated that there were no serious health threat
- Klipper, Rottweiler, the vet said that it was not advisable to operate the lump as it was harmless and the best way to deal with it was to leave it alone and provide the dog with mattress to sleep on.
- Alaska, Swiss shepherd, the vet advised application of exspot once a month to head and nose. For the skin condition he suggested cortisone injection and avoidance of sunlight from 09h00 to 3pm everyday.
- Zone, Gsd, he noted the deep corrugation on the tongue but could not find evidence of allergy.
- Sunny, Gsd, stitches were removed from the ear.
- Amber, Gsd with hip dysplasia, the vet did not find the dog to be in pain.

Follow-up inspection was conducted at the facility on the 25/10/22 at approximately 09h00 in the morning:

- upon arrival at the property, Shakira, still had the lump under the eye. No dental extraction was performed, and neither was she euthanased as stated in the vet report that the owner was considering euthanasia.
- Mike, Gsd, was discovered to have bloody elbows,
- Suda, Gsd, with a broken tooth. Although been to a vet on 20/09/22, no record of dental check.
- Mungo, Gsd, we noted a lot of flies on the dog's ears.
- Lara, black German Shepherd, and Million had a lot of flies on their body.
- There were protruding wires were observed inside kennels.
- Bed boards were still not provided in some of the dogs.
- Klipper was not provided with the mattress as advised by the vet.

Another written warning was issued for the above highlighted concerns to be rectified.
