General Report Comments: There was no one responding when I hooted and knocked at the gate. The house was said to had burnt down while the owners were and no one was staying there according to a street security guard. There was a Husky-Shepherd type dog chained to a car port post. No adequate shelter was available for the dog only a dog bed placed next to dog with bowls of food and water. The dog appeared to be in acceptable physical condition. I issued a written warning and placed it on the gate for the person in charge of the dog.
