General Report Comments: On my arrival at the property, there was a car on the driveway and the owner's son was waiting in the car. The house belongs to the the current Limpopo Province premier Mr Stanley Mathabatha's brother. His wife, Tlhuni was there was when I was at the property on her way out for a doctor's appointment. She claimed that the allegations were not true quoted as saying whoever complained must mind their own business. The dog was found in acceptable physical condition. Shelter, food and water were provided. I advised them that treating an animal in the way that it is alleged is not acceptable and a person can be prosecuted if found. To advise the complainant to have such incidents captured as evidence in future.
