General Report Comments: Upon arrival at the corner of Rita Street and Homestead Road, Bezuidenhout Valley, asked people around the block but no one had a clue. I searched around looking for clues at the Bezuidenhout Park. I finally found a Pitbull bitch chained with a bag strap, a light rusty chain and some steel wires to a fence of the park that also has a razor wire along the fence easily poking and bruising the dog. The bitch was hiding in a small open hole on the fence on the banks of a stormwater drainage furrow. There was a green tub of water provided presumably by the complainant (the homeless). The grass around where the dog was chained was dried out which indicates that the dog was left there for a while. The lactating bitch was impounded immediately and taken into our custody. To be admitted for 96 hours
