General Report Comments: Charlie doesn't appear to be neglected. The owner of the dog Mr Van Der Berg said he is at the store every day during working hours and he stay with his dog during the day and live the dog there at premises at night because Mr Van Der Berg, currently doesn't have a place to stay and he stay with his mother at the complex. The complex doesn't allow Charlie because her mother already has other dogs and Charlie is large. The landlord Mr George agreed that Mr Van Der Berg to keep the dog (Charlie) temporarily until he get sorted.
The space is big enough and during the day when the store is open Charlie has access to the office and owner does take Charlie for walks at the park. Charlie is very friendly and allowed people to touch him. I did not see any signs that he is being neglected and the owner said Charlie is everything to him and will not give away Charlie.
The is no welfare concerns during my inspection.
