General Report Comments: Upon arrival the Pitbull female dog was chained and it was also limping. The reason for chaining the dog was it goes under the palisade fencing and it went out and it came limping. On arrival the fencing was already closed were the dog comes out but the dog was still chained. Mr Clifton told me that he is scared of the dog thats the reason he did not remove the dog from the chain he is waiting for his sister to come and unchain it.
