General Report Comments: On my arrival at the property, I found Mr Mafane packing up a customer's slaughtered chicken. He claimed that the chickens belonged to a friend of his from Hillbrow to only slaughter and pluck them for him to come and fetch the chickens later. Mr Mafane had been warned before on these offenses. 3 live chickens placed in a metal shopping trolley with no adequate shelter for the chickens but they were moved to a shaded place. I went at the back of the house where I could see that there was evidence of chicken activities even though he claimed he is no longer selling chickens. He obviously cleared them out before I arrived and weekend fever demand. One of the knives appeared to be blunt and I told the owner to never use this knife unless it's properly sharpened. The owner still operated after being warned previousl. I advised him to cease operation. I gave him a written Warning to rectify the above mentioned concerns. To follow up in a week's time
