General Report Comments: I met the owner, Mr Boubacai Kassambara, at the property and explained my reason for visiting his house. He invited me inside. He owns a 10-month-old, (intact) male, tan Cross Breed dog named "Messi". The dog provided with a accessible water and sleeps in the house. Mr Kassambara mentioned that he got his son the puppy as a gift and they brought up the dog to age. I asked him about hitting the dog with a stick and he did confirm that this happen but said he was not the one involved. He said it was one of his fellow tenants whom he found doing it and stopped it immediately. He claimed that the dog was being beaten because he chewed his new broom. The so-called tenant was not available during my visit. The dog appeared to be in acceptable condition a very fond of the kids in the yard. There was no sign of being terrified towards anyone shown by the dog. I educated the owner on a few animal care tips to give the dog the best living possible. I will contact the complainant to find out about the culprit, but I insisted to see the so-called tenant next week to confront him about this incident. To follow-up next week
