General Report Comments: There was a security dog on guard being handled by the security office mentioned above . The dog was rented from Zanmarhein K9 and Security Services by the KYA Guards Security for night patrolling services. It was a black & tan, adult, male Rottweiler named "Deeza" (no full records of the dog but a mere signboard on the holding cage) supposedly resting during the day. There was a food bowl, potable water in a bucket, and a brown weatherproof igloo. The holding cage appeared to be clean and tidy. KYA Guards had a valid PAPA license but with Special Conditions that I went through but were not adhered to at this site. The dog had been there for at least over 20 days without being relieved back to his original holding cage(primary facility) where exercise camps will be provided as per the Special Conditions outlined in the license. A warning was issued for this reason and given at least 3 days to comply with these warning terms. To follow-up on the 16th April 2024.
