General Report Comments: The caretaker opened the gate for us to get into the complex. He guided us to the owner unit where we found a teenager. He showed us where they kept the dog, on a bare short chain to the burglar bars in the veranda. The teenager was willing to give up the dog to the SPCA. The dog was freed from the chain and loaded into the SPCA van while his father was pulling into the driveway . He willingly signed over the dog. The dog was surrendered but we still issued the owner with a warning for future purposes
