General Report Comments: I met the owner at his house. He owns 4 adult dogs and 5 newborn puppies given birth by one of the bitches. The dogs have access to the backyard and cannot access the front and driveway because the tenants rent out part of the house. They had food and water but no adequate shelter. The dogs were very fond of the owner jumping all over and onto him even though he was commanding them to stand down because of the formal wear that he needed to get to the office with. The dogs did not show signs of being tortured observing how they were interacting with the owner. One of the dogs was kept in the kitchen courtyard because she was fighting with the nursing bitch and had to be isolated. Because the owner did not provide adequate shelter that accommodates and protects all the dogs from weather elements, I issued him a written warning to get it fixed by the 10 July 2024
