General Report Comments: When I revisited the house, the puppy was no longer kept in a cage. It was being kept inside the house in one of the kids' bedrooms. There was bedding and feeding bowls in the room that I insisted to check. The adult dog was kept in a larger enclosure(a walled covered car port) with a carpet for resting or sleeping. He claimed the dog is serving as his added security on the property and he would let the dog run free the whole yard especially at night. He says the dog is being kept enclosed during school hours to prevent any encounters with preschool kids that could turn out dangerous for them. No chickens or rabbits were found on the property. The owner was advised to partition off the yard into back and front yard as they reside in a double-stand house. He said the preschool owners will be moving out at the end of December while he showed me the WhatsApp texts or their correspondences. I will be monitoring the situation at the end of the year
