General Report Comments: As the meeting was scheduled, I met the owner of the dogs upon. He invited me to the dogs' enclosure where I found him some of the kids helping with cleaning after the dogs. He was left 3 adults and 6 newborn puppies (aged 4-days-old). He claimed had been keeping the 4th dog for a friend and he sent the dog back. The place was being cleared of the dirt to keep tidy and clean for the dogs. Feeding bowls filled with leftover food – meal pap mixed with cooked meat and potable were available for the dogs. Mr. Sithole built a narrow dog kennel made of wooden boards with at least 3 hideouts of room for the dogs. I asked him if pets allowed on the building and he said they are not; he kept them temporarily while he was still arranging for their transport to his homelands. I told him that he may not keep any pets/animals unless with the approval of the body corporate. One of the building trustees met with us to raise their issues with Mr. Sithole the owner of the dogs and they instructed him to remove the dogs. I also persuaded him to surrender the dogs instead because of his situation. Still, he only surrendered the nursing bitch with puppies, immediately arranging their transport to his friend and the original seller of the dogs to him. I insisted that he sent me the dogs' destined address so I can go check as well. The mother and puppies were signed over
