General Report Comments: Upon arrival the cats were found roaming in the property. The owner complied with the warning. One of the lady from yesterday gave me the contact details of the owner of the cats. His name is Lucky and I contacted him. He told me saw my warning note and that's why he complied. He told me that he comes every day in the morning and after work. I made an appointment to meet him on the 23 June 2025 to discuss with sterilisation and the surrender of other cats as he has too many or to take the cats where he lives and he told that its also his property.
