General Report Comments: The 2 Tigers stay in an enclosure of about 23 meters long by 10 meters wide but its 2 enclosures with a gate allowing tigers to move from one enclosure to another enclosure.
One tiger had light bruises on the right shoulder.
The owner said they were fighting thus why he had bruises.
He applies Purple spray and terramycin wound spray.
Animals are fed twice a day with different diets.
Carnivores eat once a day 5 or 6 chickens per feed and horse meat.
The owner said maintenance is done every day if needed.
For ticks and fleas, he uses Frontline Spray and Carbodust.
For Flies, he uses Biogen liquid and fly traps.
The owner said the Female Vasa Parrot loses feathers on the head during the breeding season and the feathers come back after the breeding season is finished.
The Camels did not appear to have mange.
There was clean water for all the animals and the recreational water for the birds was acceptable.
The owner has already started building a bigger swimming pool area for the ducks, he said once it is finished then the ducks will be moved to a much bigger swimming pool enclosure.
The owner said all the water sources get changed all the time.
There is no Demrel boa its only 2 x Redtail Boa constrictors in an acceptable snake tank.
The snakes didn't seem to be scared of each other they were in a calm state upon our inspection.
The owner said he does not breed.
There was water for all the animals in the Zoo.
The owner said his staff members always make sure that the animals are provided with fresh food and fresh clean water daily.
The circled bird cage picture has got no hazard wire sticking out or inside.
All The female carnivores have been implanted preventing them from breeding according to the owner.
We advised the owner to always make sure that all the animals are provided with clean water for drinking and swimming and clean the living areas for the animals.
The owner said he will monitor the tigers and if fighting continues he will think of alternative ways to stop them fighting but doesn't want to separate them.
A Follow-up will be done to check up on the bruises on the tiger.

The owner refused us to take any photographs on the property.
