General Report Comments: Upon arrival during the collection i met Jenine and she granted me access to enter the property.

We went into the house and the dog in question was observed lying down . When Jenine called the dog it could stand up and keeps on falling. I further interrogated her regard the matter and according to Jenine the dog had a stroke for the past two weeks. She also added she didn't have money to take it to the veterinarian and i informed her it is animal cruelty failing to render veterinary treatment for the dog or any animal that is under your custody. The dog was surrendered

I issued a warning

In future any animal that is sick or injured under your custody must be taken to the veterinarian for assessment and possible treatment without any delays.

Failing to do so may lead into further actions taken against you for being in contravention of the Animals Protection Act 71 of 1962 and allowing your/ animal under your custody to suffer unnecessarily.
