General Report Comments: Upon arrival i hooted but no one came out.

I then contacted Mpendulo whose in Rasternberg. I then pressed the intercom and it was answered by Ntuthuthuko. He came to the gate to confirm my identity as they were robbed past few weeks. I then spoke to his father over the phone and he remembered me.

Ntuthuko granted me access. The dogs were not even barking but the dogs are roaming freely at the backyard as the owner built pertition to separate the property.

The dogs were observed in a good condition. They have access to adequete shelter and the living environment is clean. Dogs have access to portable water.

I strongly believe the case can be closed. There is no contravention of the Aimals Protection Act 71 of 1962 and there is no further actions that can be taken.
