CHECKLISTS

General Report Comments: I discussed the case with inspector Petros
According to Inspector Petros it is a difficult one to obtain a warrant since we can't get hold of the complaint to verify the information provided.

If we enter the property with a warrant and the respondent doesn't have a dog. He can sue SPCA or the magistrate of the district and my authority can be revoked.

I didn't see any dog on the property while i was at the gate.

I went back to have a look again same day. I didn't see any dog and i tried the neighbors but no luck.

The wall is about 3.5 meters long concrete wall.

I strongly believe the case can be closed. The complaint never called back to follow up and without any confirmation from the complaint that the owner has a dog we cannot obtain a warrant.
