CHECKLISTS

General Report Comments: I met with the complainant on the road then showed me the house.
There was noone in the property. We didn't saw any cats ,it looked like there is someone staying in the property because the washing was up.and there was no sign of cats .
I left warning and notice to contact attached to the gate .
On the 5th April I went passed the property my warning was removed from the gate and noone contacted me and I didn't see any cat .I called the complainant she said I must leave it ,she will call us back if she sees cats again.
