General Report Comments: There are proper kennels for all the dogs which is adequate. They are 4mx3m. There are enclosures outside which the dogs have turns to go into for play time and exercise it is NOT there permanent shelters. There are trees there and some have shade cloth at the top. The ground is sand and she prefers sand so that there are no ticks or fleas and that the dogs don't get pressure sores. They are not outside if bad weather. They get walked everyday by the staff. They use medi vet. Vaccinations are all up to date. They feed Omega. There are no welfare concerns. The enclosures outside are approximately 8mx4m. The dogs looked very calm. There was no stereotypical behaviour.
