General Report Comments: Upon my arrival I hooted at the gate Noone came out.
I saw one cross breed male dog chained under the veranda.
The dog appeared to be underweight.
The property was fenced at the front not sure at the back.
I left warning and request to contact.
Later the same day, the owner called me he said the dog was new, he was scared that if he got out off the property he will not find his way back.
He said he was willing to released it in few days.
On Friday 27 February I went back to the property the dog was loose, I took the photos.
The dog still appears to be underweight,there was little improvement.
I will check it in 2 weeks time
