General Report Comments: Upon arrival I realised the complainant lives on the same property. She explained that the dog in the front yard is her dog and the dog in the back yard is the dog she complained about. She further explained that the dog's owner is barely at home and months ago she had an agreement with the owner that she would look after the dog. However, the dog attacks her dog and that is the reason why her dog is in the front yard. She is now tired of feeding the dog and being responsible for it as it is not her dog. I asked for the contact details of the owner and I was informed that she does not have the contact details. I requested that she let me know when the owner is home so that I can return when the owner is home.

ACTIONS

OTHER Requested that I be informed when owner is home.
