Please describe the concern you have

I went to the petting zoo at Mountain View Horse trails with my family over the weekend , and we are very concerned about the smaller animals on the property and the conditions of some of the enclosures,

Some of the enclosures seem very overpopulated with out-of-control breeding. And the animals overall are not in good condition. There are malnourished kittens riddled with fleas, chickens looking very sad, cats with wounds and bunnies not looking great.

Please inspect all enclosures on the property, including the house, and Wendy's houses behind the house to insure no further breeding or animal cruelty.
