I phoned and spoke to the complainant. She wasn't sure what the unit number was. She told me that someone named Mark gave her college this information and that he will be able to grant me access and provided his contact number. I then phoned and spoke to him. At first he was confused as he stay in Joostenberg Vlake but then realized that I'm speaking about his ex wife cat. He told me that she is out of the country and he has been taking care of the cat and was there last night. He then told me that he is also going away for the weekend and one of her friends will look after the cat and gave me a contact number for the onwer. I phoned and spoke to her. She told me that Mark slept at her property every second night, the domestic worker was there yesterday and a neighbor also have a key to her unit. She told me that she is out of the country and 1 of her friends will take the cat and keep it till she come back on Tuesday and provided me with her friend namdd Julique's number. I then phoned and spoke with Julique who agreed to meet me at the property. When she arrived, she granted me access where I observed the car free roaming inside the unit with access to water, food and a clean living environment. The cat appeared in good health and condition.

The cat is not abandoned. Case
