Subject: Dogs being bred for fighting: TIP OFF

Dear NSPCA,

I would like to report that at this address in Salt River Cape Town , dogs were being bred for fighting:

74 Burns Road Salt River, Cape Town.

I came across this while delivering food to that community during Covid, and I thought I had lost the address but it came up on my phone today. The breeder had an old person living with him (grandmother) who came out and bragged to me of his breeding dogs 'in the back' - and he immediately tried to shut her up.

If you look at an aerial view of the property there are a whole lot of structures in the backyard.

It should be investigated for keeping dogs in cruel conditions as a starter.

Sincerely
Dr T Mort

(Please keep my name out of this).
