- ① No animal can be picked up by its legs. Mishandling was addressed multiple times. Shall an animal be too heavy or large, then additional people must help with handling. No matter how large the animal, picking it up by its legs is not permitted. Riot was also seen lightly smacking a sheep once it was tied. This is unacceptable. These animals are already in a state of distress and fear and stress must be minimised as much as possible.
- ② Clients waiting for an extended period of time must offload their animals into pens with food, water, and shelter. Animals cannot be left in vehicles for extended periods of time.
- ③ The area in which animals are slaughtered must be properly cleaned prior to the next animal being brought in. This pertains to carts and butchers and equipment.
- ④ Yesterday, 16 June 2024, your dog was found confined in a cage without water and off-odouring dirty and unhygienic conditions with accumulated faeces in various stages of degradation (including old, solid faeces) and with old, rotting cardboard. Your dog must have access to water at all times. Your dog must be kept in hygienic conditions and if he is to be confined, it must be in a clean environment affording adequate space.

This warning has been issued in terms of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act 169 of 1993.

Failure to comply with this warning may render you liable for prosecution under the Animals Protection Act 71 of 1962 and / or Performing Animals Protection Act 24 of 1935.

Any person who:- obstructs, hinders or resists an office authorised in terms of the Animals Protection Act 71 of 1962 or conceals any animal shall be guilty of an offence in terms of Section 8(4) of the aforementioned Act.
