Comments by Inspector:

The SPCA received a complaint regarding sheep being g overcrowded in two pens. It was also alleged that the sheep does not have food or water.

I responded to the complaint and went to the facility. I was granted entry by one of the workers, David.

I went to the sheep first. They were kept in two pens but they were not overcrowded. They didn't have food or water. I addressed this with them and water was provided immediately. They advised they do not have any food on the premises. The goat was provided with water but no food. The same with the cow. ...
